

GLOBAL NUCLEAR TESTING

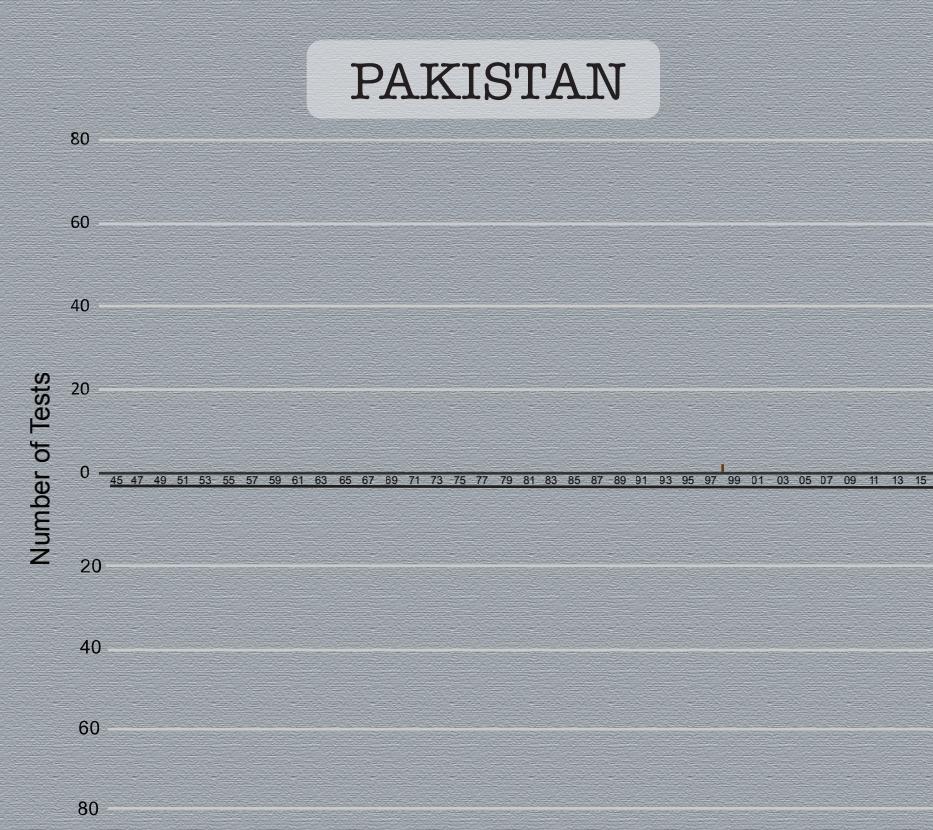

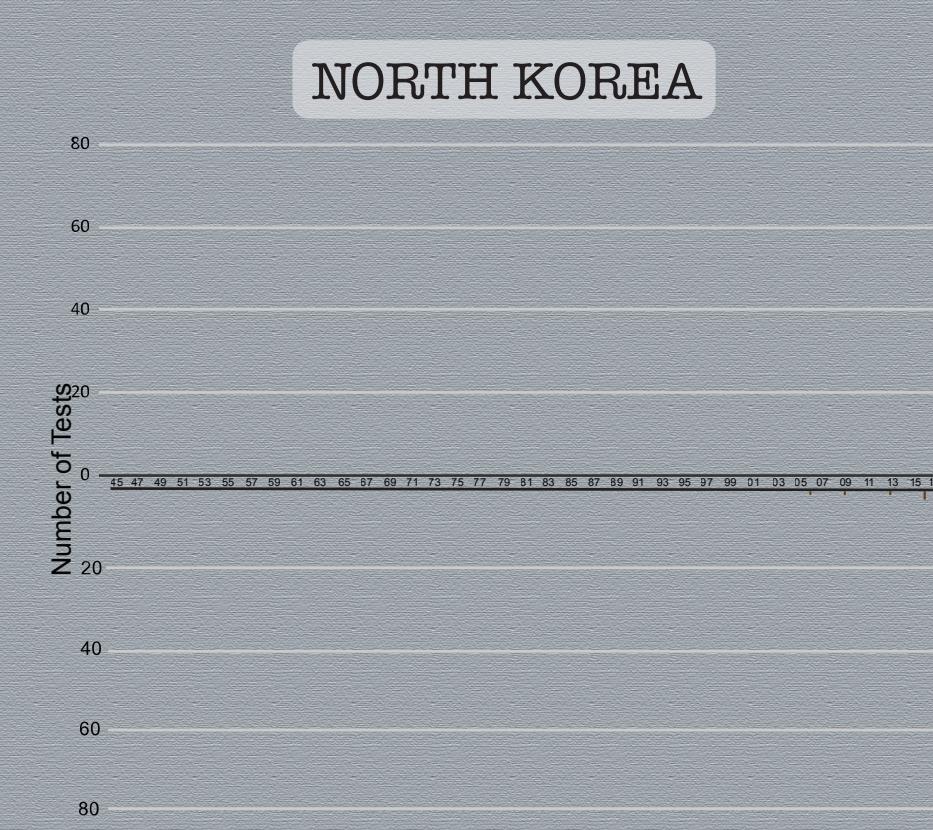

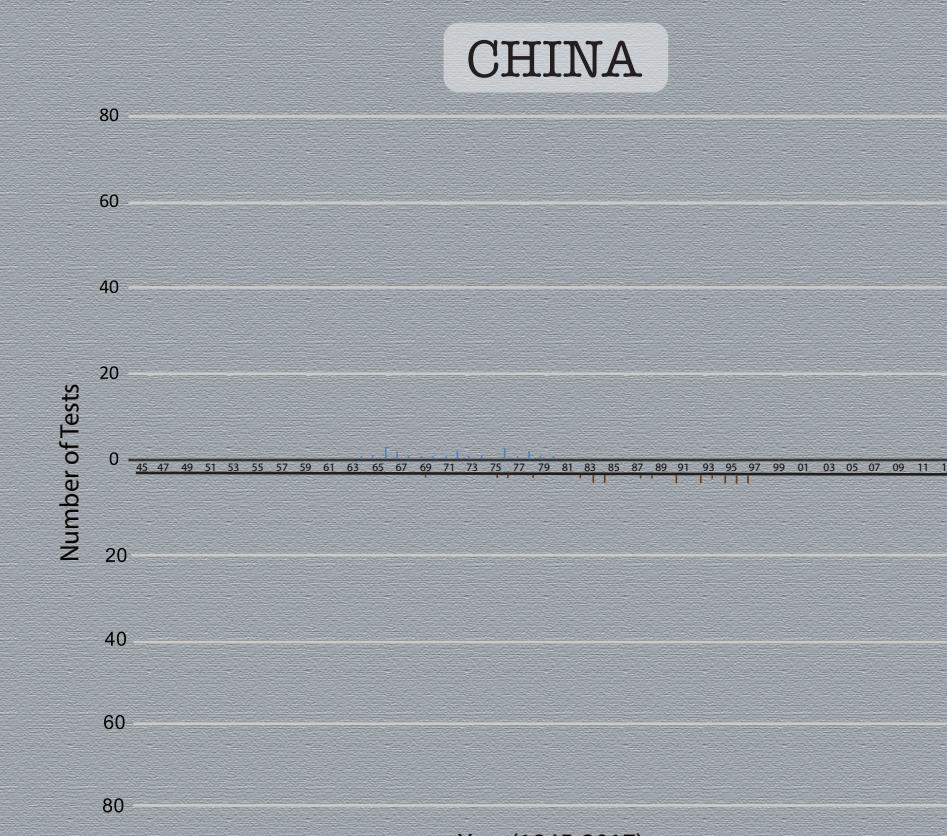

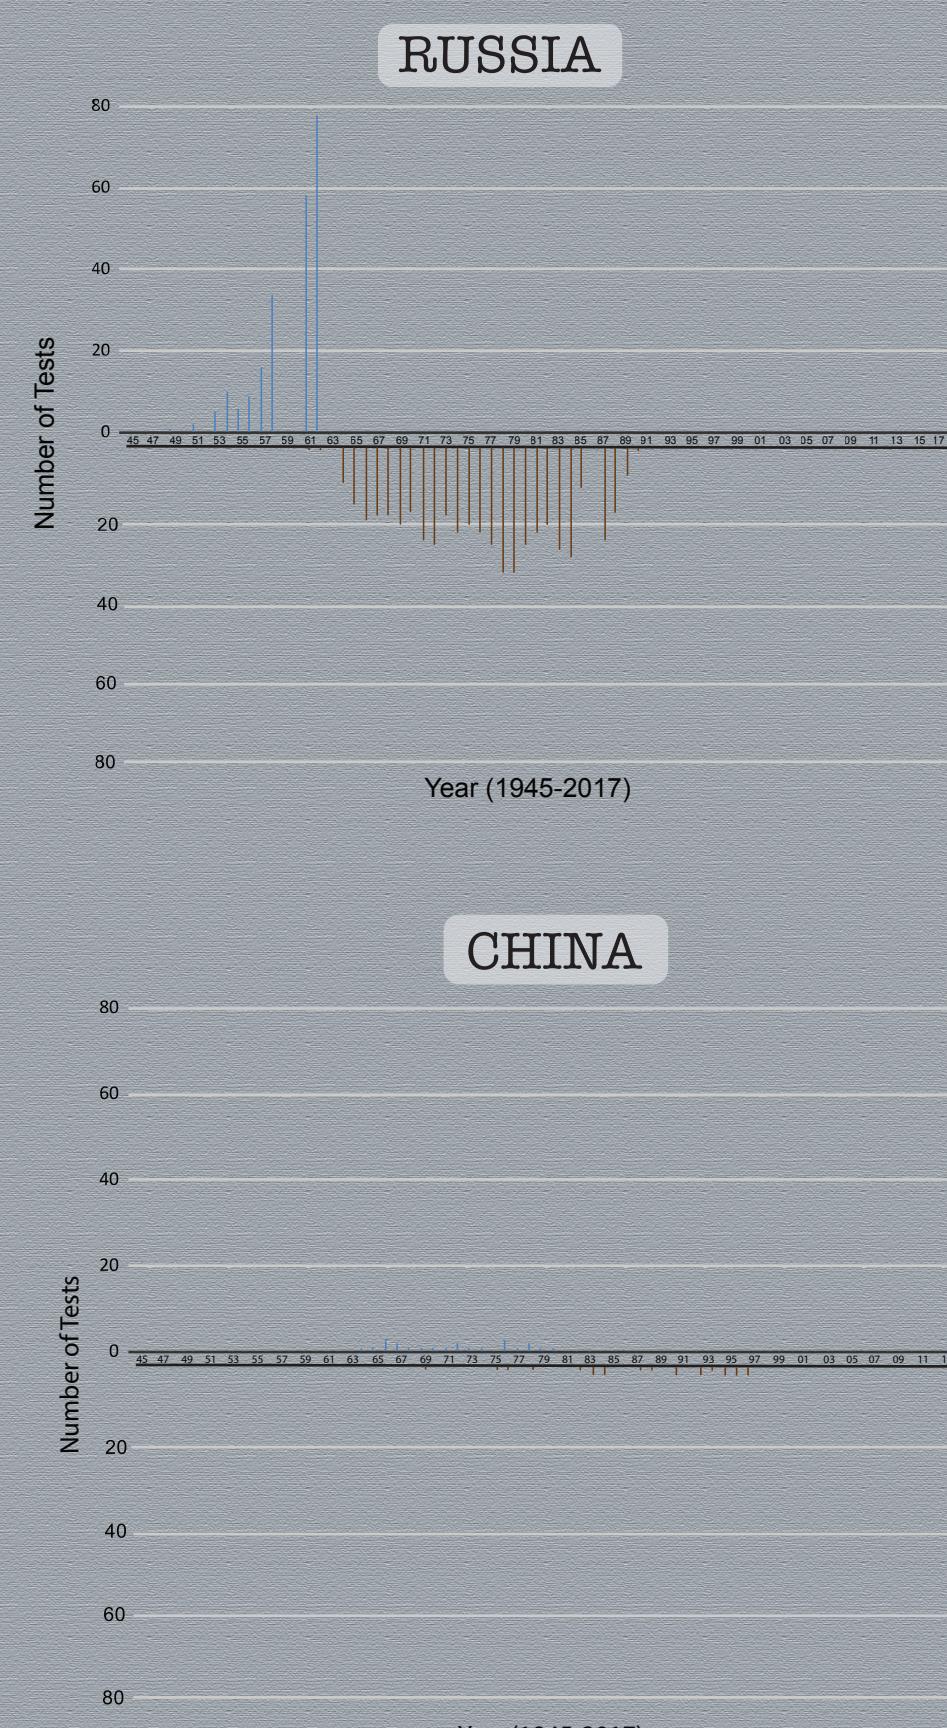

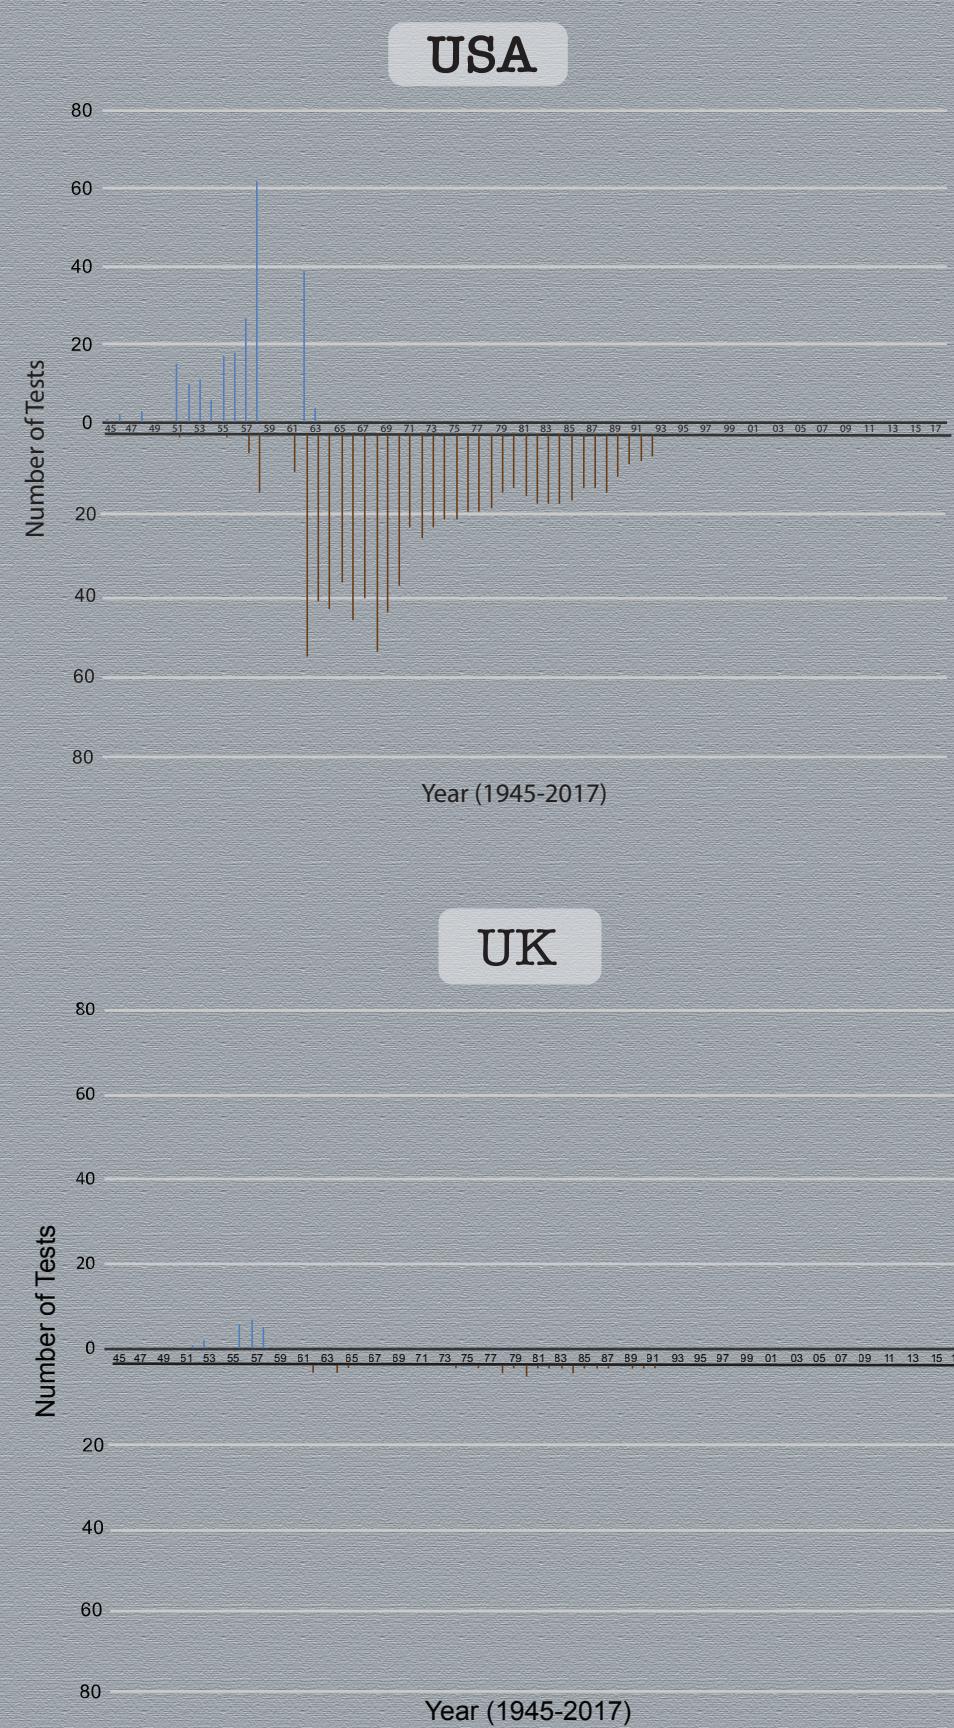

TOTAL NUMBER OF TESTS CONDUCTED BY EACH COUNTRY

A TIMELINE OVERVIEW

Atmospheric and Underground Tests by Country

The radioactive nuclides released during nuclear testing are a major cause for increase in cancer rates.

The correlation can be seen in the incidence rates of Cancer in the countries where tests were conducted.

Radionuclide contributions to the total effective dose equivalent commitment (%) to the world population

Number of people with Cancer

